

Satellite radio is great. When I travel in my car to other cities, I can instantly get traffic and weather info. I can listen to up to the minute news on my favorite cable news channel. I also like the variety of the commercial free music stations. Please do not allow anyone to limit the information and entertainment that I pay for on satellite radio.